All,

Please find and review the attached digital magazine at your leisure.

The NIJ is a research institution which exists to serve law enforcement. NIJ Journal 280 is themed around law enforcement and policing, and discusses some of the many ways NIJ has committed to advancing the law enforcement profession through science, from building in-house law enforcement research capacity to understanding the ways that artificial intelligence, body-worn cameras, and other technologies have transformed criminal justice.

Enjoy,

Lt. Matthew Hilliard, #741
